Burringbar Street Mullumbimby

LICENCE AGREEMENT

This Licence made this day.....is between

BETC Employment & Training (BETC) (The Licensor)

And:.....(The Licensee)

Of.....

Trading As:.....

ABN:

This Licence is for use of Incubator Unit/s No of the CLIC Building corner Burringbar & Gordon Streets Mullumbimby NSW.

The proposed use of the Unit/s is .....

IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that it is not the intention or desire of the BETC or the Licensee that a tenancy or any other form of exclusive possession of the premise be created by this licence.

IT IS AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Licence Fee is: Start date:

i) $ per week (inc. GST). Payable per calendar month in advance.

Date fee commences: (1st week rent free)

Monthly fee (inc. GST):

Fees will be reviewed annually and are subject to an automatic increase in line with the Consumer Price Index, however, BETC may increase the fee at its discretion giving the Licensee one months notice.

ii) In addition a monthly electricity charge of $ (inc. GST) per unit will be added to the Fee. This amount will be adjusted back to the actual usage every 6 months.

iii) A further charge of $22 ( inc. GST) per month will be added to the monthly Fee if the Licensee elects to have Broadband access.

iv) The Licensee will pay a deposit of $30 at the time of signing this Agreement, for two keys (2 x $15) to each Licensed unit. At the time of vacating the unit this amount will refunded when both keys are returned. The cost of any lost key will be met by the Licensee.

2. Collection of the Licence fee:

Licensees will have two payment options:

i) to pay on invoice by cheque to BETC the designated fee at the start of each calendar month; or

ii) have the amount debited directly from a nominated account at the start of each calendar month.

Licensees must nominate one payment method at the time of signing this agreement.

Tenants must pay the value on the invoice generated by BETC and not another amount unless prior arrangements have been made with the BETC accounts department

3. SUBJECT to the provisions set out in this Agreement, BETC grants to the licensee, licence to non-exclusively use that part of the premises specified above for the nominated license fee. BETC hereby grants to the licensee, licence to use the premises specified solely on the basis of licensor and licensee and that any other service, help or advice is at the sole prerogative of the licensor.

4. THE LICENCE MAY BE TERMINATED by either party giving the other one weeks written notice or by BETC immediately, if at any time the Licensee fails, neglects or refuses to immediately perform any of the conditions set out in this agreement (this includes non payment of fees or power used).

Upon any termination all rights of the licensee shall cease (but without prejudice to any fees owing) and the licensee shall immediately remove all their effects and chattels and vacate the premises leaving them clean and tidy and in original condition.

Should the Licensee fail to remove its property and vacate the premises BETC may remove and store such property at the Licensee's expense without in any way being liable for any loss or damage. And should the Licensee fail for over one month (30 days) to claim its property or pay any such storage expenses BETC may proceed to sell such property without further notice to the Licensee.

5. Fees not paid for 30 days will attract interest calculated in the following way. The Reserve Bank of Australia's Cash Rate target will be the base rate to which a further 5% per annum will be added. For example, in September 2005 the Reserve Bank Cash Rate target rate was 5.5%. To this amount a further 5% will be added making a total of 10.5% per annum BETC will charge.

5.1 BETC may waive the interest if a licensee contacts the accounts department within the 30 day period & makes arrangements to pay the arrears.

6. The Licence hereby granted is personal to the Licensee and no rights may be granted by the Licensee to any third party of sub licence. Should the Licensee go from a sole trader to a partnership or acquire a silent partner or acquire venture capital on a share basis then that additional party must co-sign the Licence Agreement.

7. The basis of this agreement is to grant to the Licensee use of the premises to develop the nominated business. The Licensee must make every effort to develop & grow the nominated business. Failure to make such effort constitutes grounds for termination of this agreement. BETC maintains the sole discretion to determine whether a Licensee has made the required effort to develop & grow the business.

8. The Licensee undertakes to develop the nominated business in the form identified in the Licence application. If for whatever reason the nature of the business changes, BETC must be notified immediately. The Licensee must obtain prior written approval from BETC for any other use of the premises.

9. The Licensee accepts the nominated Premises in their present condition as suited for the intended use of the Licensee.
